College of Computing and Software Engineering (CCSE)

February Achievements Faculty, Staff and Students. CONGRATULATIONS and WELL DONE!

Congratulations to the Winners of the CCSE Faculty and Staff Awards listed below.

Staff Award Positive Impact/Service to the Community: Melissa Lappe

Staff Award Student Success Impact Award: Ashley McClure

Faculty Award College Distinguished Professor Award: Ying Xie

Faculty Award Outstanding Research and Creative Activity: Dr. Ramazan Aygun

Faculty Award Outstanding Early Career: Dr. Maria Valero de Clemente

| Melissa Lappe | Ashley McClure | Ying Xie | Dr. Ramazan Aygun | Dr. Maria Valero de Clemente |

Congratulations to Dr. Bobin Deng, Dr. Patrick Bobbie, and Kun Suo who received a collaborative funding, Affordable Learning Georgia Affordable Materials Grant for $15,000.

Congratulations to Dr. Soon Lee (PI) and Nasrin Dehbozorgi (Co-PI) have receievd a $5,000 KSU grant under the SPECIAL RESEARCH INITIATIVE program on a project titled "AI-Based Discourse Analysis System (ADAS) for K-12 Science Classrooms".
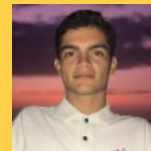

Congratulations to PI: Selena He, Shirley Tian. Senior Personnel: Anyoung Lee, Xinyue Zhang, Maria Valero, Xinyan Zhang, Sylvia Bhattacharya who received funding by NSF Research Experiences for Undergraduates award amount: $323,650 for 3 years. Project titled: "REU Site: Non-Invasive Deep Brain-Computer Interfaces"

Congratulations to Lead PI: Shirley Tian, PIs: Chi Zhang, Hossain Shahriar, Jack Zheng, Seyedamin Pouriyeh. Their proposal for continuous development in MSIT courses was funded by Affordable Learning Georgia Affordable Materials Grant for $10,000 for 1 year.

Kimberly Gomes, a minor in Applied Statistics and Analytics had the honor of presenting her research on "Posttraumatic Stress Disorder, Suicidality, and Stress: The Moderating Role of Dysfunctional and Recovery Cognitions" at Posters at the Georgia Capitol. Posters at the Georgia State Capitol is an annual event hosted by the Georgia Undergraduate Research Collective where only four selected undergraduate students from the state of Georgia present their posters to state legislators.

The Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia recognizes one student annually from each of its institutions for the Regents' Academic Recognition Day. Eliott Larez was nominated, representing the College of Computing and Software Engineering and the KSU Journey Honors College, to represent Kennesaw State University.

Congratulations to our winners!

1st Place Winners - The Scrapettes
Ella Coode, Mason Valles, Jaime McBride

2nd Place Winners - Mayans
Naga Sai Krishna Adatrao, Ayush Patel, Manohar Murikipudi

3rd Place Winners - Avalanche
Joel Roche, Ibrahima Gueye, Esmerelda Rangel

Congratulations to our winners!

1st Place Winners - Team Friendship
Ashton Forde, Dion Green, Justin Bull

2nd Place Winners - Team WAM
Eric Weese, Aidan Mitchell, Yemi Agesin

3rd Place Winners - Avalanche
Jeffery Felshaw, Mahliq Obie, Chris Quashie

Share your success with us!
Go to CCSE website and click on Share Your Success tab to submit your information.