

Lori Kaczynski

Lori Kaczynski is SVP, Chief Audit, Risk, and Compliance Officer for Graphic Packaging International. Throughout her 20+ year career, Lori has worked in a variety of industries and roles including leadership, risk management, audit, accounting, financial reporting and analysis, compliance, and more. Lori holds CPA, CIA, CGMA, and CRMA certifications.

Lori earned her accounting degree from Kennesaw State University. She served on the School of Accountancy's Academic Advisory Council for more than 20 years and served on the boards of the Internal Audit Center and KSU Athletics Association. Lori was also a founding member of the Beta Alpha Psi Honors Chapter.

Other accomplishments include serving on an accounting firm's advisory board, leading the Atlanta Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors and serving on the board and finance committee of Sheltering Arms, a nonprofit providing early education and comprehensive family support. She is also treasurer and board member of the Smith-Gilbert Gardens Foundation supporting conservation and education.

Lori is committed to the advancement of women in business and leadership. She is the executive sponsor for Graphic's women's employee group and regularly volunteers her time to support peer mentoring initiatives.

The Atlanta Business Chronicle recognized Lori with the "Women Who Mean Business" award, and she has authored or appeared in many articles for the publication. She is a regular speaker and panelist for local and global industry events including the Wall Street Journal Sustainable Business Forum; AICPA, IIA, ISACA, and NAEM events; expert roundtables; and in university classrooms.

An accomplished speed skater, Lori won six Canadian National Championships, a North American Championship, and held a national speed record. She is a first-generation American and the first of her family to graduate college. Lori and her husband Chip live in Marietta and have one daughter.
