

FILM SCREENING

1:00pm - 1:30pm FREE coffee & donuts

1:30pm - 2:50pm Film screening

2:50pm - 3:30pm Panel discussion

Prillaman Hall room HS-1105

02.15.18

Los Angeles Times

"Patriotic but not overly rah-rah, inspiring without an excess of feel-good calculation."

The New York Times

*"Macroeconomics and the Little Guy
'American Made Movie' Ponders U.S.
Manufacturing's Decline."*

Hollywood REPORTER

"This film about the decline of American manufacturing provides some reasons for hope."

Panel Discussion will feature:

Nathan McGill (Director/Producer of the film)

Clyde Strickland (CEO of Metro Waterproofing)

Jason Moss (CEO of Georgia Manufacturing Alliance)

Event is FREE to attend and open to both the KSU community and the general public

Coles College of Business
Bagwell Center for the Study of Markets and Economic Opportunity