

Symposium on the
FOUNDATIONS AND APPLICATIONS OF GAME THEORY

Tuesday, March 26, 2019 | 8:45am-12:15pm | Prillaman Hall 1000

8:45am-9:15am: Session I

9:30am-10:45am: Session II

11:00am-12:15pm: Keynote

KEYNOTE:

Nobel Laureate Alvin Roth
“Marketplaces and Market Design”

PRESENTERS:

James Boudreau, Professor of Economics, Kennesaw State University
Sean Ellermeyer, Professor of Mathematics, Kennesaw State University
Brett Katzman, Professor of Economics, Kennesaw State University
Timothy Mathews, Professor of Economics, Kennesaw State University
Alvin Roth, Nobel Laureate and Professor of Economics, Stanford University

PRESENTATION TITLES:

- “Overview of Game Theory”
- “Solution Concepts for Non-Cooperative Games”
- “Repeated Non-Cooperative Games”
- “A Case Study in Cooperative Game Theory:
The Stable Matching Problem”

To register, please visit colescollege.com/gametheory

KENNESAW
STATE UNIVERSITY
Coles College of Business
Bagwell Center for the Study of Markets and Economic Opportunity