

Program Information

College:	Clarice C. and Leland H. Bagwell College of Education
Department:	Educational Leadership
Program:	Educational Leadership, EdD

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

- write clearly and convincingly that reflects accurate and precise use of grammar, usage and mechanics for scholarly writing.
- write in precise adherence to the APA format.
- clearly demonstrate the use of scholarly, professional, and academic language at a doctoral level in the oral presentation and in answers to questions during the defense.
- demonstrate the ability to orally present all chapters; sections of at a scholar doctoral-level competence.
- clearly demonstrate a comprehensive, scholarly, doctoral-level understanding of the literature and content area(s) pertinent to the study.
- clearly demonstrate scholarly, doctoral-level understanding of the need for and potential application of the research in educational contexts and on student learning.
- write clear and convincing responses in their comprehensive exams using scholarly academic language and correct APA formatting.
- write clearly and convincingly the first three chapters of their dissertation proposals.