

Program Information

College:	College of Architecture and Construction Management
Department:	Construction Management – Undergraduate
Program:	Specialty Construction, Certificate

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Recall and apply core ideas and processes involved in the management of building systems, facility operations, occupant services, and maintenance operations post-occupancy.
2. Recall and apply key ideas of construction accounting and cost control.