

Program Information

College:	College of Computing and Software Engineering
Department:	Information Technology – Graduate
Program:	Health Information Technology, Certificate

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Explain the fundamental concepts in Health Information Technology.
2. Apply information technology to solve business problems in healthcare domain.