

Program Information

College:	College of Computing and Software Engineering
Department:	Information Technology – Graduate
Program:	Information Technology Security, Certificate

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Explain the fundamental concepts in information technology security.
2. Gain hands-on experience in configuration, design, development, and administration of security tools.