

Program Information

College:	Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department:	School of Government and International Affairs
Program:	Public Administration, MPA

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

- identify good public management and evaluate its impact on agencies, clientele, and society.
- describe the structure and institutional relationships that exist among and between agencies and nonprofits in a political setting.
- analyze global administrative situations and correctly apply public administration theories and concepts.
- correctly analyze management of ethical dilemmas using concepts like equity, efficiency, effectiveness, and the democratic ethos.
- engage in scholarship and research and present material professionally through appropriate written and oral communication.