

Program Information

College:	Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department:	School of Conflict Management, Peacebuilding and Development
Program:	Conflict Management, MS

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

- Identify concepts and theories from conflict management, especially: procedural justice, social identity theory, conflict management styles, interest based negotiation, and intercultural communication.
- Possess and demonstrate knowledge and application of ethical principles to given situations, especially ethics rules for Georgia neutrals as outlined by the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution.
- Demonstrate knowledge and application of advanced communication skills relevant to a range of conflict management practices.
- Apply interdisciplinary knowledge to the exploration and assessment of conflict and peace contexts.