

Fall Semester is Looking Bright!

Stop by to meet us at the Graduate College offices at either the Town Point building or on the Marietta campus in J-353A during business hours this semester and pick up a pair of Graduate College branded sunglasses (while supplies last).

Meet-n-Greet Aug. 22 and 23

Drop in anytime between 4-6 p.m. on Aug. 22 or 23 at the Academic Learning Center, room ALC 3550, Third Floor for light refreshments and mingling with other graduate students and Graduate College staff.

Updated Graduate Catalog

The recently published 2023-2024 Graduate Catalog for Kennesaw State University is now available online. This comprehensive catalog serves as the official reference for the university's academic offerings, courses, and regulations.

When planning your academic path and striving towards graduation, utilize this catalog alongside guidance from your academic advisor and DegreeWorks.

If you require an older catalog, archived versions can be located here.

Graduate Writing Program

Graduate school writing can be a whole different ballgame with longer papers like capstones, theses, and dissertations. But don't worry, our KSU Writing Center has you covered!

The Writing Center provides you with writing coaches who specialize in helping grad students like you. They offer face-to-face, live online, and online written response sessions. If you want to set up regular sessions with a grad writing coach, please email GraduateWritingCenter@kennesaw.edu.

The Writing Center also has the English Language Program, that offers multilingual students tutoring in writing, reading, conversation, and more. For more information, please email elp@kennesaw.edu.
