

KSU President Kathy S. Schwaig

Introduction

At this time, I have the pleasure of introducing Kennesaw State's President, Kathy S. Schwaig (pronounced SCH-WHY-G). President Schwaig is a professor in information systems at KSU where her teaching and research focused on the strategic and ethical implications of computer technology.

Prior to becoming President in March 2022, Dr. Schwaig served KSU in many key administrative roles including Interim President, Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the Michael J. Coles College of Business.

She has received several community awards including the Cobb Executive Women's Glass Ceiling award, Atlanta Magazine's Women Making a Mark Award, the Oscar Burnett Award for Distinguished Achievement in Business from Morris Brown College Foundation and has been listed among "Education Who's Who: Atlanta's Top Leaders in Education" by the Atlanta Business Chronicle. She has also served on numerous corporate and not-for-profit Boards of Directors.

President Schwaig holds degrees from Baylor University, University of South Carolina, and Johns Hopkins University.

Please join me in welcoming KSU President Kathy Schwaig.
