

CURRICULUM VITAE

LINDA J. SUTTON, RN, MSN

lsutton7@kennesaw.edu

EDUCATION

Refresher/Re-Entry Course, Kennesaw State University 2011

MSN in Pediatrics, University of Rochester 1989

BS in Nursing, magna cum laude University of Texas, Houston, TX 1985

Diploma Registered Nurse, St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Syracuse, NY 1983

Valedictorian

LICENSURE

Georgia RN 115194

EXPERIENCE

Clinical Assistant Professor, School of Nursing, Kennesaw State University, 1/16-present

Clinical Instructor (part-time), School of Nursing, Kennesaw State University, 9/12 – 12/15

Staff Nurse, Children's Healthcare of Atlanta 10/11-12/15

Clinical Nurse Specialist, School Age Unit, University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital 1992

Adjunct Faculty Instructor, School of Nursing, University of Rochester 1989-1992

Clinical Nurse Specialist in Pediatrics, Visiting Nurse Service, Rochester, NY 1989-1991

Clinician II/Clinical Nurse Specialist, Pediatric Neurology/Comprehensive Epilepsy Program, Strong Memorial Hospital 1988-1989

Special Project Nurse, Pediatric Dermatology, Strong Memorial Hospital 1988-89

Staff Nurse, Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, Strong Memorial Hospital 1986-88

Home Health Nurse, Medical Personnel Pool, Rochester, NY 1985-86

Staff Nurse, Intensive Care Unit, Cypress-Fairbanks Medical Center, Houston, TX 1985

Staff Nurse, Open Heart Recovery Room, St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital, Houston, TX 1983-85

RESEARCH

Study Coordinator: Double-blind Efficacy and Tolerance Study in Pediatrics. Patients with Atopic Eczema Comparing Elocon Cream 0.1% Applied QD and Hydrocortisone Cream 1.0% Applied BID June 1988-89

Co-Investigator: Innovations in Care of the Premature Infant's Skin September 1988-June 1989

PUBLICATIONS

Vernon HJ, Lane AT, Sutton LW, et al. The Effect of a Semi-Permeable Dressing on Transepidermal Water Loss in Premature Infants. Pediatrics. 1990;86:357-362.

PRESENTATIONS

"The Use and Abuse of Topical Steroids in Children"

American Academy of Allergy and Immunology Conference, Baltimore, MD 1990

Southern Medical Association Conference, Nashville, TN 1990

American College of Allergy and Immunology Conference San Francisco, CA 1990

American Osteopathic Association Conference Las Vegas NV 1990

Pediatric Research Society Conference New Orleans, LA 1991

"Needs of the Child in School" and "Future Perspectives: The Comprehensive Epilepsy Center", Children with Seizure Disorders-Management Update
University of Rochester 1990